A NOTE FROM ALISON

We're excited about our upcoming Scholastic Book Fair! It is a wonderful opportunity for children to explore new stories, discover favorite authors, and bring home books to enjoy. We can't wait to share the joy of reading with our TPNS community!

As the holiday season is in full swing, I want to wish all of you a joyful, restful, and festive time with your families. Whatever you celebrate, may this season be filled with laughter, warmth, and beautiful memories.

FRIENDLY REMINDERS

- Flu Vaccines are required for ALL children by 12/31/25
- Please reserve the spots by the red doors for families with infants 6 months or under or with 3 or more children in tow, and be sure to display your purple parking pass!
- If your child is picked up by a grandparent, nanny or another caregiver, please let them know about our parking policy.

NAVIGATING HOLIDAY EXCITEMENT

The holiday season can be full of joy - and big emotions! Meltdowns, clinginess, or disrupted sleep are normal at this age. At school, we support children with routines and calming strategies. At home, consistent routines, quiet downtime, and validating feelings can help children navigate the excitement while feeling safe and supported.

Thank you to all of you for the incredible "Thankful for You" breakfast on the 18th! It was so appreciated.

Thank you
